

JAILED FOR FREEDOM

DORIS STEVENS

A first-hand account of the 1913-1919 campaign of American suffragists, detailing their treatment at the hands of the courts, and the true conditions of their incarceration. (Summary by Sarah Jennings)

- 01 – Dedication and Preface, Leadership – 00:29:48 02 – Women Invade the Capital – 00:25:03
03 – Women Voters Organize – 00:25:48
04 – The Last Deputation to President Wilson – 00:23:59 05 – Picketing a President – 00:29:08
06 – The Suffrage War Policy, The First Arrests – 00:31:55
07 – Occoquan Workhouse – 00:39:54 08 – August Riots – 00:34:42
09 – Prison Episodes – 00:28:26
10 – An Administration Protest, The Administration Yields – 00:33:23
11 – Political Prisoners, The Hunger Strike – 00:34:27 12 – Administration Terrorism – 00:37:01
13 – Alice Paul In Prison – 00:34:27 14 – Administration Lawlessness Exposed – 00:20:58
15 – The Administration Outwitted, Political Results – 00:31:26
16 – An Interlude, New Attacks on the President – 00:30:46
17 – The President Appeals to the Senate Too Late – 00:42:11
18 – More Pressure, The President Sails Away, Watchfires of Freedom – 00:28:09
19 – Burned in Effigy, Boston Militants Welcome the President,
Democratic Congress Ends – 00:24:09
20 – A Farewell to President Wilson, President Wilson Wins the 64th Vote in Paris,
Republican Congress Passes the Amendment – 00:21:05